

Living with Autism & Asperger's Syndrome

A series of Evening Talks arranged by the Multi-Agency Autism Group (MAAG) to help parents, families, carers and professionals learn more about autism and to gain confidence in managing children in their care.

NEW VENUE

Living with Autism- Different Perspectives

- Who A series of short, interactive and informal talks about being on the spectrum and living with autism, given by adults and children on the autistic spectrum. Parents of children on the spectrum including Lisa Macnally, Gail Freeman and Mandy Garford will be present to speak about their experiences, if time permits.
- What Secondary age children on are welcome to accompany their parents to this event
- When Wednesday 24th May 2017 at 6.45pm until 8:45pm
- Where Stone St Mary C of E School, Hayes Road, Stone, DA9 1EF

Booking Lois Spearing lois.spearing@nhs.net Lois will book your place

Jo Blamires Jo@kentautistic.com

Questions Please contact Jo directly with any questions about the topic being discussed at the meeting

The Multi-Agency Autism Group is a partnership of representatives from Health, Education, Social Services, Voluntary Agencies and Parents. We provide this event and any follow-up information in the hope that it may prove useful; we believe it comes from credible sources but we are unable to vouch for the content and its suitability for your needs. Any views and opinions expressed by guest presenters are their own and are not necessarily endorsed by MAAG. People attending can use the information and knowledge gained but MAAG and our guest presenters cannot be liable for the outcome or any adverse effects. Guest presenters usually give of their time voluntarily..

